RE: National FFA Convention Information
Date: July 19, 2018

It's time for Maryland FFA members to representing our State at the 91st National FFA Convention to be held, October 23- October 27, 2018 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Key Information

*Convention Registration has changed. The National FFA Registration portal will open on September 12th at 6pm. FFA Advisors must go on line to the National FFA Convention portal to register their students for the convention. This includes participation in CDE, tickets for award functions, concerts, rodeo and special entertainment, convention registration buttons, career success tours, hotel shuttle passes, parking permits for cars and buses.

*Travel- Each chapter must provide their own transportation to the convention center, hotel and the airport. There will be a charter bus traveling from Maryland provided by Atlantic Coast Charters, 16126 Business Parkway, Hagerstown, MD 21740. The cost to ride the bus will be $120/person from Central Maryland and $145 from Chesapeake College/Eastern Shore. You must indicate on the registration form if you and your students wish to ride the bus. The bus schedule will be determined once those riding the bus have been identified.

*State Photo: The state photo will be taken on Friday, October 26th at 10:45 am. FFA members are expected to be in official dress unless they are coming directly from their CDE event in which other attire is required. The cost for the photo is $15 and can be purchased by Chapters at the convention.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Our room block includes rooms with a check-in Tuesday 10/23/18 and a check out Saturday 10/27/18. Unfortunately, because of the contract, we cannot offer a discount if your chapter arrives on Wednesday for individual student circumstances. If your chapter plans on arriving on Wednesday, please let us know so that the hotel does not release your rooms as a "no-show." Rooms are not available on Monday or Saturday nights, so plan your travel accordingly.

NOTE: All FFA members will be housed, four or six to a room and adults will be housed two to a room. There are no single rooms available.

 Each region is assigned four delegate positions. Please contact your regional coordinator for these slots.
Regional coordinators are to notify the state office regarding the allocation of these positions by August 1st.

American Degree recipients have the option of booking rooms and registering directly through the National FFA.
This information will be sent directly to the candidate and it is strongly recommended that they utilize this service.

Keep in mind that members should plan on bringing sufficient spending money to cover their meals, personal expenses and souvenirs while traveling to, from and during the convention.

FFA Member/Advisor Attire:

FFA Official Dress: members are expected to wear FFA Official Dress as outlined in the official FFA manual and on the National FFA website throughout the convention. Convention sessions, tours and time at the career show are not considered casual time.

Casual FFA Dress: FFA Shirt, Jeans, Sneakers / closed shoes are appropriate for the concerts, rodeo and at the hotel.

Advisors and chaperones are expected to dress in business attire during the convention including team orientations, team photos, award programs and events. It is imperative that advisors, chaperones and students keep in mind that their dress/clothing is a reflection on the organization.

The National FFA Board of Directors expects FFA Advisors to ensure ALL FFA members who attend the National FFA Convention follow the standards of official dress as outlined in current Official Manual.

REGISTRATION

Please complete the registration form for all attendees including those participating in CDEs. Additional students may attend the conference however, Advisors will need to register them using the attached form and pay the full price. These students will be allowed to attend on a first-come-first- served basis. It is important that all information on the registration form is completed.

Maryland FFA Board Policy: Initially, there will be a limit of four non-CDE participating members per chapter attending with an Advisor. Maryland has a limited number of rooms available within our housing block and those representing Maryland on career event teams, agriscience fair will have first priority. If your chapter plans on taking a delegation of persons that are not participating in a Career Development Event, Advisors are strongly encouraged to fully plan out their time at the convention. Workshops, tours and concerts fill in advance of the conference please register for these events through the National FFA registration process.
